Acknowledgements

This book is greatly indebted to previous scholars who have documented the impact of Old Norse literature and culture in various periods. As will be evident from what follows, without the work of Ethel Seaton, Frank Farley, Margaret Clunies Ross, Margaret Omberg, and Andrew Wawn, I could hardly have even begun my own. In addition, three young scholars—Tom Birkett, Eleanor Parker, and Josie O’Donoghue—gave so generously of their expertise and time that without their help with this book I could hardly have finished it. I am deeply grateful to them all.
